Introduction

This is the 9th year that Silver State Cricket Club has been participating in the Chiangmai Cricket Sixes. This years tournament was held from March 30th till April 5th and it was the 16th Chiang Mai Sixes.

The SSCC team left Kuala Lumpur on Sunday, March 30th. We gathered at the airport at 6.30am and unlike previous tours when the bottle of Bacardi Coke was the standard breakfast, this time it was McDonald's and Coffee. As you can tell, we did not get off to a good start. (Arun, I am sure you are very disappointed with us for breaking tradition)

The team itself was a real mix and match. We left Malaysia with Bala, Paul Kwong, Sitha, Jonathan and last but not least Mahendran from Royal Selangor Club. We also had Sanjay from USA and Amal Silva from Sri Lanka joining us in Chiangmai. The only thing we knew for sure was that we were going to Chiangmai to have fun, drink a lot, make fools of ourselves, torture our bodies and play cricket. (all in that order). Little did we know the burning desire in each one of us to do well on the field as well and take our chances when it did matter.

As this report is going to all members of Silver State Cricket Club, it will be a concise and censored report. As per previous years only the people who went to Chiang Mai will know what happened in Chiang Mai. As the saying goes, “Whatever happens in Chiang Mai, stays in Chiang Mai”.

The Team

From Left to Right : Sharon Kwong, Paul Kwong, Sanjay, N.Balachandran, Mahendran Ms Koy, Sitha, Amal Silva, Jonathan Ling, Jackie Yeoh.

The Team

N. Balachandran 'JB' (Captain)

On his third tour to Chiang Mai, Balachandran has been known to party all night long and still play good cricket the next day. Known as JB or John Bala, he is a medium pace bowler who is also very useful with the bat. On his last tour he was mistaken for a former Sri Lankan Test player by none other than Mike Gatting and this was probably due to a combination of his bowling abilities and his beer belly. Usually one of the first to open the innings at the Sugar Shack and consistently closes it as well.

Paul Kwong 'PK' (Vice-Captain)

Club President. Holds the record of being the slowest talker in Town. You could finish smoking a cigarette for him to finish a sentence. Opening batsman for the club and also the club captain for the very very social side. Can't bowl. Tried once but almost killed the square leg umpire. Fun chap but can't drink much as he suffers from "Rich Man disease" - Gout

Sitharather 'Who-Da-Man' Moorthy

The resident Joker. A founding member of the SSCC. A dangerous off-spin bowler who turns the ball like a top. A smooth talker and is an R&B fan. Play the music and he'll be the first on the floor. Word of caution though.... LADIES BEWARE. He sings like George Benson and moves like Don Juan DeMarco. Loves the pussies.

Jonathan Ling (Joe Nathan Lingam)

One of the newest member to Silver State Cricket Club and on his first tour to Chiang Mai (Chiang Mai Virgin). A Chinaman who has been adopted by the Indian community, Jonathan is a very good fielder who tries hard on the field. He has a good eye for the ball although this has only been seen on the golf course. One of the fastest person to down a glass of beer and this has won Silver State many games off the field. Jonathan is ready to make his mark in Chiang Mai and should be the new up and coming Chinaman for Silver State.

Mahendran (The Camel)

Playing for Silver State Cricket Club for the very first time, this Selangor Club player got to know about the trip a week before the team left. Convinced by Sitha to come along he decided that the cricket must be good with all the stars that go there. Little did he know what he was getting himself into. Essentially a very useful bat but can bowl and put the ball there. A good kid but just badly brought up.

Sanjay Subbanna (The Stick)

An unknown quantity to the Silver State, born in India, works in Boston, plays cricket in Boston and Cape Town and played for BA Dragons last year at the Chiang Mai 6's and now for Silver State. Call him 'nomad', 'mercenary' or what may you, but this man typifies the ultimate cricket lover who has been places to watch and play the game he loves the most. The excuse to Chiang Mai is to escape the US draft to Iraq.

Amal Silva (Former Sri Lankan Test Player, current Golfer)

An old friend and playing team member of Silver State Cricket Club, Amal made the trip only because he found out that SSCC was going to be there and he was playing for us. Totally spoilt by Bala and Conrad 2 years ago when they introduced him to golf. Today he plays of an 8 handicap and treats the cricket bat like a golf club.

Miss Jackie Yeoh (Barbie Girl) - Supporter

Wacko Jacko is the inspiration to the team. The driving force that will provide the support from behind. Also a Chiang Mai Virgin, Silver State is hoping that for the first time they will have a representative in the ladies team. (Jackie does not know this yet). With her good looks and wonderful personality Silver State is hoping that lady luck will be with them this year. Jackie Yeoh has never held a cricket bat but as some will testify, she has a mean left hook and knows how to hit a ball where it hurts most. Jackie may need to play for the men's team if the organizers will allow it.

Sharon 'Shop Till U Drop' Kwong - Supporter

Better and faster half of Paul, Sharon's main objective is to have a relaxing time in Chiang Mai and to ensure that Paul does not get the rest of the guys into trouble. A quiet person but when Sharon says something, all listen. Especially when it comes to Jam and Gems.

Sharon Kwong

Chiang Mai has got the largest Gems factory in the world. Sharon heard that it was the largest Jam factory and insisted that Paul take her there to buy some Jam. Paul thought she meant Gems. So one fine morning Paul, Sharon, Jackie, Mahendran and Sanjay go looking for the Gems Factory. Only Sharon thought it was Jam Factory until they actually got there. To punish everyone for laughing at her so much, she made everyone wait 45 minutes and spent RM2,000 ringgit of Paul's money.

Mahendran

One night Sitha cracked a joke and Mahendran laughed so much that he fell off the bed. This got everyone laughing even more and the funny thing was that while Mahendran was on the floor laughing, the only thing everyone could see was his arse going up and down because he was lying on his stomach.

Bala

At the Sugar Shack one night, Bala looked really spaced out and starring into nothing. Sitha comes over and says "hey bro, you okay". Bala looks at Sitha and says, "if you want to talk to me come to my planet". Sitha looks at Bala and says "Man, if I come to your planet, I may never come back".

Off The Field Antics

Sitha

After getting back to the hotel at 3.30pm, Sitha decides to call for a 2 hr massage. The girl comes into the room about 30 minutes later, by which time Sitha is already fast asleep on his stomach. Jonathan opens the door to let her in. She proceeds to get onto Sitha's back to massage him but Sitha is so knocked out he does not even move. The girl with a shocked look on her face turns to Jonathan and ask, "is your friend alive". At this point Sitha lets out a loud snore.

Paul

According to Paul in Chiang Mai we can start to play golf at 6.30am because it will be 7.30am in Malaysia.

Also according to Paul the Golf course at Bangkok airport is very "flat". Little did he realize its because its at the airport.
